

The Ingenuity and the Artistry of Lower Prospect Avenue

Prowl through one of Cleveland's most historic and vibrant downtown neighborhoods. Listen to the stories of the city's past, present and future; the outdoor market site in the 1890's which morphed into a bustling 20th century business corridor that has finally transformed into the sophisticated entertainment district of today.

Copyright 2006. All rights reserved. CityProwl LLC.

Map created at www.communitywalk.com

1. Flannery's Pub – located in the Buckeye Building.
2. May Company Building – Once the largest department store in Ohio. Designed by architect Daniel Burnham.
3. David Myers College – Cleveland's first business college.
4. Quicken Loans Arena (The 'Q') – Home of the Cleveland Cavaliers basketball team.
5. Central Market Site – One Cleveland's largest open air market 120 years ago, open 7 days a week
6. United Church of Christ Building – formerly the Home Telephone and then the Ohio Bell Telephone building.
7. Flatiron Building – Houses the Winking Lizard Saloon & the Cleveland Urban Design Center.
8. Rose Building – Built by Benjamin Rose, home to Medical Mutual of Ohio.
9. Hippodrome & Standard Theatres site – Now a parking lot, it once was the home of the gigantic Hippodrome Theatre, capacity of 3,500 and the Standard movie theatre.
10. Colonial Arcade – Present home of the Residence Inn. Connected and parallel to the Euclid Arcade.
11. Euclid Arcade – Built on the site of famous Clevelander Harvey Rice's house.
12. Krause Building – Unique narrow urban building. Home to a costume making business in the 19th century.
13. Pickwick & Frolic – nightclub and restaurant with a Dickensian theme. Built on the foundations of the Euclid Ave. Opera House.

Tour duration: 37 minutes / 0.9 miles